

Weston Playhouse Theatre Company
SOUND INTERN
Seasonal, Full-time

Reports to: Sound Engineer
Start Date: Late May
End Date: Late August/ Early September
Work Week: 6 days, 8-10 hours/day, often overnight during changeovers, day off may vary week to week
Housing: Shared room, kitchen and bath in company housing

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Assist with the setup of sound and backstage audio-video systems, equipment maintenance, cabling for 7 shows on 2 stages.
- Serve as backstage sound/wireless microphone technician for mainstage musicals; possibly operate sound board for non-musical mainstage productions.
- Work with sound department on necessary paperwork, purchasing, research, inventory creation, and maintenance.
- Assist in the upkeep, cleanup and maintenance of work areas and equipment
- Assist in other departments as assigned
- Attend Intern Meetings
- Provide support for special events or company projects as needed

REQUIREMENTS:

- Proven interest and skills in standard sound design and production techniques and practices. Prior experience with wireless microphone care and trouble-shooting strongly preferred.
- Minimum of 1 year experience and/or study, preferably at the university level, in sound design and production or equivalent
- Excellent inter-personal, organizational, collaborative, communication skills
- Knowledge of and respect for adhering to industry and OSHA standard safety practices
- Ability to safely lift up to 50 pounds
- Ability and willingness to work long days with irregular schedules with positive attitude
- Valid driver's license
- At least 18 years of age
- Ability to thrive in rural area with limited cell service